

California Sociological Association (CSA) Astrosociology Session Panel
November 11-12, 2005 ! Sacramento, CA
(last revised on November 8, 2005)

Regular Session Title: "Astrosociology: The Sociology of Outer Space"

November 11: 10:00am - 11:45 am / Granada Room

Organizer: Jim Pass, Astrosociology.com & Long Beach City College

Paper Titles/Participants:

Overcoming the Image of Little Green Men: Astrosociology and SETI

Albert A. Harrison, University of California, Davis

Cosmology as a Framework for Social Analysis: An Astrosociological Perspective

Mark P. Ciotola, San Francisco State University

Isolated Group Interaction in Space Travel and Extraterrestrial Colonization: Preliminary Astrosociological Modeling of Space Communities

Gregory T. Morales, San Diego State University

Preliminary Findings of ASA Members' Attitudes toward Astrosociology and the Study of Space

Marilyn Dudley-Rowley, OPS Alaska & Sonoma State University

Thomas Gangale, OPS Alaska & San Francisco State University

Jim Pass, Astrosociology.com & Long Beach City College (non-presenter)

Special Astrosociology Session

November 11: 12:00 pm - 01:00 pm / Granada Room (same room as above)

Astrosociology and the Challenges of Interstellar Message Design

(PowerPoint Presentation only – no corresponding paper)

Douglas Vakoch, The SETI Institute & California Institute of Integral Studies
(primary author; presenter)

Jim Pass, Astrosociology.com & Long Beach City College
(secondary author; presenter)